

Western Illinois

Students are required to complete a minimum of 120 credit hours of coursework to earn a Bachelor's degree. This includes 48 credit hours of general education, 36 credit hours of major coursework, and 36 credit hours of elective coursework. Students must also complete a minimum of 48 credit hours of residency at Western Illinois University. Students who are transferring credit from other institutions must have that credit evaluated and approved by the Registrar's Office. Students who are transferring credit from other institutions must have that credit evaluated and approved by the Registrar's Office. Students who are transferring credit from other institutions must have that credit evaluated and approved by the Registrar's Office.

Student's Full Name: _____